

REMARKS

Status of the Claims

Restriction Requirement in parent

In the parent application U.S. Serial Number (USSN) 09/493,022, the Patent Office alleged that the pending claims of that application were directed to three separate and distinct inventions under 35 U.S.C. §121:

Group I: Claims 1-8, drawn to computer-implemented methods of generating a 3-D representation of a target sequence wherein the entire target sequence is listed, classified in Class 702, subclass 19.

Group II: Claims 9-11, computer-implemented methods of generating a 3-D representation of a target sequence wherein identity constraints, 2-D constraints, and tertiary constraints are used, classified in Class 702, subclass 19.

Group III: Claims 12-13, drawn to computer-implemented methods of generating a 3-D representation of a target sequence wherein an alignment of the target sequence with another sequence is used, classified in Class 702, subclass 19.

Group I elected in parent

In the parent application Applicants elected Group I, drawn to computer-implemented methods of generating a 3-D representation of a target sequence wherein the entire target sequence is listed, classified in Class 702, subclass 19.

Claims canceled

In the instant preliminary amendment for this divisional application, Applicants cancel claims 1 to 8, and 12 and 13; thus, claims directed to Group II, drawn to computer-implemented methods of generating a 3-D representation of a target sequence wherein identity constraints, 2-D constraints, and tertiary constraints are used, classified in Class 702, subclass 19, remain pending. Thus, after entry of the instant amendment, claims 9, 10 and 11 remain pending.
